RESPONSIBLE SOURCING STANDARDS

The Home Depot and its affiliates, divisions, and subsidiaries strive to conduct business in a responsible manner. As we expand our business activities and work with suppliers domestically and globally to meet customers' needs, it is important to preserve our collective commitment to human rights and safety in the workplace.

The Home Depot expects that all suppliers will abide by all applicable international and local laws, rules and regulations in the manufacture and distribution of merchandise or services provided to The Home Depot. All suppliers are strongly encouraged to exceed The Home Depot's guidelines and promote continuous improvement throughout their operations.

All suppliers must be able to demonstrate compliance with these requirements at the request of The Home Depot.

These guidelines provide an introduction to the minimum requirements that all Suppliers must meet in order to conduct business with The Home Depot. These requirements are part of all commercial agreements with The Home Depot.

Laws and Regulations

Suppliers must operate in full compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the countries in which they operate.

Child Labor

Suppliers must not employ workers younger than the greater of 15 years of age -- or 14 where the local law allows such exception consistent with International Labor Organization guidelines -- or the age for completing compulsory education or the minimum age established by law in the country of manufacture.

In addition, Suppliers must comply with all local legal requirements for the work of authorized young workers, particularly those pertaining to hours of work, wages, and working conditions.

Forced Labor

Suppliers must not use forced, bonded (including debt bondage) or indentured labor, involuntary or exploitative prison labor, nor shall suppliers participate in slavery or trafficking of persons. This includes transporting, harboring, recruiting, transferring or receiving persons by means of threat, force, coercion, abduction or fraud for labor or services. The use of prison or convict labor cannot be forced and must be consistent with the laws where the products are manufactured and the laws where it is imported.

There shall be no unreasonable restrictions on workers' freedom of movement in the facility in addition to unreasonable restrictions on entering or exiting company provided facilities.

As part of the hiring process, workers must be provided with all documents relevant to their employment in a language they understand with a description of terms and conditions of employment prior to the worker departing from his or her country of origin, and there shall be no substitution or change(s) allowed in such documentation upon arrival in the receiving country unless these changes are made to meet local law and provide equal or better terms.

All work must be voluntary and workers shall be free to terminate their employment. Employers and agents may not hold or otherwise destroy, conceal, confiscate or deny access by employees to their identity or immigration documents, such as government-issued identification, passports or work permits, unless such holdings are required by law.

Foreign migrant factory workers should not be required to pay employers' or agents' recruitment fees or other related fees for the purpose of being hired or as a condition of employment.

Harassment and Abuse

Suppliers must treat all workers with respect and dignity. No worker shall be subject to corporal punishment, or physical, sexual, psychological or verbal harassment or abuse. In addition, Suppliers will not use monetary fines as a disciplinary practice.

Compensation

Suppliers must meet or exceed the minimum wage and compensation requirements as defined under applicable labor laws, applicable agreements and local regulations for regular work, overtime work, production rates and other elements of compensation and employee benefits.

Hours of Work

Suppliers must ensure that, except in extraordinary business circumstances, on a regularly scheduled basis, workers shall not be required to work more than the lesser of (a) sixty (60) hours per week, including overtime or (b) the limits on regular and overtime hours allowed by the law of the country of manufacture. In addition, except in extraordinary business circumstances, all workers shall be entitled to at least one day off in every consecutive seven day period.

Non Discrimination

Suppliers will ensure employment – including hiring, salary, benefits, advancement, discipline, termination, retirement, or any other terms and conditions of employment – should be based solely on the person's ability to perform the job requirements and not the person's beliefs or any other personal characteristics.

Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining

Suppliers must recognize and respect the rights of workers to exercise lawful rights of free association, including joining or not joining any association. Suppliers must also respect the legal right of workers to bargain collectively.

Health and Safety

Suppliers must provide a safe and healthy working environment in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Environment

Suppliers must comply with all local environmental laws and regulations applicable to the workplace. Factories must conduct business in a manner which minimizes their impact on the environment.

Subcontracting

Suppliers must not use subcontractors in the manufacture of products or product components for The Home Depot without disclosing such information to The Home Depot, and only after the subcontractor has adequately demonstrated compliance with these Responsible Sourcing Standards.

Communication

Suppliers must communicate the provisions of The Home Depot Responsible Sourcing Standards to all workers and supervisors.

Business Ethics

Suppliers will conduct business with The Home Depot consistent with honesty and integrity and demonstrate the highest standards of business ethics. Suppliers will take no actions directed at improperly impacting the results of any audit including presentation of falsified records or coaching of employees. Consistent with The Home Depot Gift and Entertainment policy, Suppliers will not offer any incentives to The Home Depot's associates or audit firm representatives.

Monitoring and Compliance

The Home Depot will undertake affirmative measures, such as announced and unannounced on-site audits of production factories, to monitor compliance with these Responsible Sourcing Standards. Suppliers must maintain on site all documentation necessary to demonstrate compliance with the Responsible Sourcing Standards, and Suppliers must allow Associates and/or representatives from The Home Depot full access to production facilities, worker records, production records and workers for confidential interviews in connection with monitoring visits.

Suppliers are expected to take necessary corrective actions to promptly remediate any noncompliance. Suppliers are expected to actively engage in remediation – including timely preparation and presentation of a Corrective Action Preventative Action (CAPA) plan. The Home Depot reserves the right to terminate its business relationship with any Supplier who is unwilling to comply with these Responsible Sourcing Standards.
