

PATH TO PRO

HOUSING, THE SKILLED LABOR SHORTAGE AND PATH TO PRO

By 2031,

41%

of America's current construction workforce will retire.

There are nearly

300,000

job openings in the skilled construction trades today, set to increase to

4.1

million

in the next 10 years.

Nearly

600,000

individuals were introduced to the skilled trades through the Foundation's Path to Pro program.

Over

70,000

participants are certified for careers in the trades through the Foundation's nonprofit partners.

In 2026

$1 million

will be invested in nationwide Path to Pro Education Grants for schools and nonprofits to bolster trades training.

$10,000

Max grant amount per school or nonprofit.

41

Median age of owner-occupied homes in the U.S.

$10.8 billion

Potential cost of skilled labor gap to residential construction industry